LIST OF CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS
Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery
Elmira, New York

Elmira, New York

In 1861 Elmira was a training and marshalling center for Union Soldiers. There were three camps with two hospitals and a large warehouse. As the barracks emptied it was decided to make use of the buildings as a prison camp. Here between July 1864 and August 1865 about 12,000 were confined at different times. Of these about 2,950 died. Many were in poor condition when they arrived. The first winter in camp was unusually severe which added to the large loss of life.

At first the United States Government made no provisions for the burial of prisoners so the city officials of Elmira gave the Commanding Officer permission to use one half acre in the city cemetery, known as Woodlawn. The half acre plot was soon filled and before the close of the camp two and one half acres had been used for the graves of Confederate soldiers.

As far as the records show, the Federal Government did nothing in the matter until 1877 when it paid the City of Elmira Fifteen Hundred Dollars for the two and one half acres, and named the plot Woodlawn National Cemetery. Since then more land has been added and many other veterans of United States wars are now buried there.

At the time of the Confederate burials, John Jones, an escaped slave who had found freedom in Elmira, was sexton of Woodlawn. He kept a meticulous record of each Confederate burial so that when, in 1907, the Federal Government erected a small marble marker at each grave, it was possible to mark each stone with the soldier's name, company regiment, date of death, and grave number.

Among the men whom John Jones buried was one from the household in which he had lived as a slave in Virginia.

An excellent book giving a complete history of the Elmira Prison Camp was written by Clay W. Holmes and is called "The Elmira Prison Camp" and was published in 1912.

Erected by the United States to mark the burial place of forty-nine Confederate soldiers who, while prisoners of war, were killed in a railroad accident near Shohola, Pennsylvania, and whose remains were there buried, but subsequently removed to this Cemetery, where the individual graves can not now be identified.
